(b) The rights, privileges and conditions conferred to the holders of Cumulative Redeemable Preference Shares in the capital of the Company shall be as follows:-

(i) Dividend

The holders of the Cumulative Redeemable Preference Shares ("CRPS") shall be entitled to a dividend every year at a rate to be determined by the Board of Directors. Such right to dividend shall be cumulative, and together with any arrears in dividend, shall rank ahead of any payment of dividend on the ordinary shares. The timing of payment of the dividends due to holders of the CRPS shall be at the sole discretion of the Directors.

(ii) Entitlement to Receive Notices and Accounts

The holders of the Cumulative Redeemable Preference Shares shall be entitled to receive all notices, accounts and reports which holders of Ordinary Shares are entitled to. The accidental omission to give such notice to, or to the non-receipt of such notice by, any person shall not invalidate the proceedings of any resolution passed at any such meeting.

The Cumulative Redeemable Preference Shares shall only confer on the holders the right to attend and vote at general meetings on any question directly affecting any of the rights or privileges attached to such shares.

The Cumulative Redeemable Preference shareholders shall also have the right to vote at any meeting convened for the purpose of reducing the capital, or winding-up, or sanctioning a sale of the undertaking, or when the dividend on the Cumulative Redeemable Preference Shares is in arrears for more than six (6) months.

(iii) Rights on Winding-Up

The Cumulative Redeemable Preference Shares shall, in winding-up, be entitled to repayment of capital, and in addition to a sum (the premium) of up to the equivalence of the nominal value of the shares to be paid out of surplus assets. The repayment of capital shall rank in priority to the Ordinary Shares but the premium shall only be paid after the repayment of capital on the Ordinary Shares but otherwise the Cumulative Redeemable Preference Shares shall not further participate in the surplus assets and profits of the Company.

(iv) Redemption

(A) The Company may at any time apply any profits or monies of the Company which may be lawfully applied for the purpose in the redemption of the Cumulative Redeemable Preference Shares upon such terms as may be fixed at the time of issue or conversion of the shares.

The power of redemption may be exercised by the Board acting on behalf of the Company upon the giving of one month's notice of the proposed redemption to the holders of such Cumulative Redeemable Preference Shares.

- (B) Any notice of redemption shall specify the particular shares to be redeemed, the date fixed for redemption and the place at which the certificates for such shares are to be presented for redemption and upon such date each of the holders of the shares concerned shall be bound to deliver to the Company at such place the certificates for such of the shares concerned as are held by the holders in order that the same may be cancelled.
- (C) The Company shall redeem the whole of the shares for the time being issued out of any monies which may lawfully be applied for that purpose by way of issuing cheques made out to the specified amount to the respective shareholders.

(v) Redemption Amount

The redemption amount shall be the nominal value of the shares held together with any premium which may be fixed at the time of issue of the shares, and a further amount ("the further amount") equal to the pro-rated dividend attributable to the period from the date of the last dividend payment to the date of redemption. Where no dividend was paid since the date of issue of the shares, the further amount shall be computed from the date of issue of the shares to the date of redemption.

- 6. (a) If at any time the share capital is divided into different classes of shares, the rights attached to any class (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class) may, whether or not the Company is being wound up, be varied with the consent in writing of Members holding three-fourths of the issued shares of that class, or with the sanction of a special resolution passed at a separate general meeting of Members holding shares of that class. To every such separate general meeting the provisions of these Articles relating to general meetings shall mutatis mutandis apply, but so that the necessary quorum shall be two Members at least holding or representing one-third of the issued shares of that class and that any Member holding shares of that class may demand a poll. To every such special resolution the provisions of Section 152 of the Act shall, with such adaptations as are necessary, apply.
 - (b) The repayment of preference capital other than redeemable preference, or any other alteration of preference share-holders rights, may only be made pursuant to a special resolution of the holders of the preference shares concerned, provided always that where the necessary majority for such a special resolution is not obtained at the meeting, consent in writing, if obtained from the holders of three-fourths of the preference shares concerned within two months of such meeting shall be as valid and effectual as a special resolution carried at that meeting.
7. The rights conferred upon the holders of the shares of any class issued with preferred or other rights shall not, unless otherwise expressly provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class, be deemed to be varied by the creation or issue of further shares ranking as regards participation in the profits or assets of the Company in some or in all respects pari passu therewith.

8. The Company may exercise the powers of paying commissions conferred by the Act provided that the rate per cent, or the amount of the commission paid or agreed to be paid shall be disclosed in the manner required by the Act and the commissions shall not exceed the rate of 10% of the price at which the shares in respect whereof the same is paid are issued or an amount equal to 10% of that price (as the case may be). Such commission may be satisfied by the payment of cash or the allotment of fully or partly paid shares or partly in one way and partly in the others. The Company may also on any issue of shares pay such brokerage as may be lawful.
9. Where any shares are issued for the purpose of raising money to defray the expense of the construction of any works or buildings, or the provision of any plant which cannot be made profitable for a long period the Company may pay interest on so much of such share capital as is for the time being paid up for the period and subject to the conditions and restrictions mentioned in Section 69 of the Act and may charge the same to capital as part of the cost of the construction of the works or buildings or the provision of the plant.
10. Except as required by law, no person shall be recognised by the Company as holding any share upon any trust, and the Company shall not be bound or be compelled in any way to recognise (even when having notice thereof) any equitable, contingent, future, or partial interest in any share, or unit of a share or (except only as by these Articles or by law otherwise provided) any other rights in respect of any share except an absolute right to the entirety thereof in the registered holder.

CERTIFICATES

11. Every person whose name is entered as a Member in the Register shall be entitled without payment to receive no later than one month after allotment or of lodgment of transfer (or within such other period as the conditions of issue shall provide) one certificate in respect of each class of shares held by him for all his shares in that class or several certificates each for one or more of his shares in any one class upon payment as the Directors shall from time to time determine for every certificate after the first plus any stamp duty levied by the Government concerned from time to time. The certificate of title to shares shall be issued under the Seal and signed by at least two Directors or one Director and countersigned by the Secretary or some other person appointed by the Directors; provided that the signature of the Director, Secretary or other appointed person may be reproduced by some mechanical means. Also provided that in respect of a share or shares held jointly by several persons, the Company shall not be bound to issue more than one certificate and delivery of a certificate for a share to one of several joint holders shall be sufficient delivery to all such holders.
12. Subject to the provisions of the Act, if any share certificate shall be defaced, worn out, destroyed, lost or stolen, it may be renewed on such evidence being produced and a letter of indemnity (if required) being given by the Member, transferee, persons entitled, purchaser, as the Directors shall require, and (in case of defacement or wearing out) on delivery up of the old certificate, and on payment of the amount of any costs and expenses which the Company has incurred in connection with the matter plus the amount of the proper duty with which each such certificate is chargeable under any law for the time being in force relating to stamps and generally on such terms as the Directors may from time to time require. In case of destruction, loss or theft of a share certificate a person to whom a renewed certificate is given shall in addition pay all expenses incidental to the investigation by the Company of such destruction, loss or theft and the cost of obtaining all evidence in connection therewith and shall bear any loss that may be incurred by the Company as a result of the Company issuing such renewed certificate to such person.

LIEN

13. The Company shall have a first and paramount lien on every share (not being a fully paid up share) for all money (whether presently payable or not) called or payable at a fixed time in respect of that share, and the Company shall also have a first and paramount lien on all shares (other than fully paid shares) registered in the name of a Member (whether solely or jointly with others) for all money (whether presently payable or not) payable by him or his estate, either alone or jointly with any other person to the Company; but the Directors may at any time declare any share to be wholly or in part exempt from the provisions of this Article. The Company's lien, if any, on a share shall extend to all dividends payable thereon.
14. The Company may sell in such manner as the Directors think fit, any shares on which the Company has a lien, but no sales shall be made unless, a sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable, nor until the expiration of fourteen days after a notice in writing, stating and demanding payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable, has been given to the Member for the time holding such share, or the person entitled thereto by reason of his death or bankruptcy.
15. To give effect to any such sale the Directors may authorise some person to execute a transfer of the shares in favour of the person to whom the shares are sold or disposed of. The purchaser shall be registered as the holder of the shares comprised in any such transfer and he shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money nor shall his title to the shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the sale or disposal.
16. The proceeds of the sale shall be received by the Company and applied in payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable and the residue (if any), shall (subject to a like lien for sums not presently payable as existed upon the shares before the sale) be paid to the persons entitled to the shares at the date of the sale or his executors, administrators or assigns or as he directs.

CALLS ON SHARES

17. The Directors may from time to time make calls upon the Members in respect of any money unpaid on their shares (whether on account of the nominal value of the shares or by way of premium) and not by the conditions of allotment thereof made payable at fixed times, provided that no call shall be payable at less than one month from the date fixed for the payment of the last preceding call, and each Member shall (subject to receiving at least fourteen days' notice specifying the time or times and place of payment) pay to the Company at the time or times and place so specified the amount called on his shares. A call may be revoked or postponed as the Directors may determine.
18. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Directors authorising the call was passed and may be required to be paid by instalments. No shareholder shall be entitled to receive any dividend or to exercise any privilege as a Member until he shall have paid all calls for the time being due and payable on every share held by him, whether alone or jointly with any other person, together with interest and expenses (if any).
19. If a sum called in respect of a share is not paid before or on the day appointed for payment thereof, the person from whom the sum is due shall pay interest on the sum from the date appointed for payment thereof to the time of actual payment at such rate not exceeding 10% per annum as the Directors may determine, but the Directors shall be at liberty to waive payment of the interest wholly or in part.

20. Any sum which by the terms of issue of a share becomes payable on allotment or any fixed date, whether on account of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium, shall, for all purposes of these Articles be deemed to be a call duly made and payable on the date on which by the terms of issue the same becomes payable, and in case of non-payment all the relevant provisions of these Articles as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture or otherwise shall apply as if such sum had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.
21. The Directors may, on the issue of shares, differentiate between the holders as to the amount of calls to be paid and the times of payment.
22. The Directors may, if they think fit, receive from any Member willing to advance the same all or any part of the money uncalled and unpaid upon any shares held by him and upon all or any part of the money so advanced may (until the same would, but for the advance, become payable) pay interest at such rate not exceeding (unless the Company in general meeting shall otherwise direct) 10% per annum as may be agreed upon between the Directors and the Member paying the sum in advance but no money so advanced shall confer any right to participate in profits. Except in liquidation, sums paid in advance of calls shall not, until the same would but for such advance have become payable, be treated as paid up on the shares in respect of which they have been paid.

JOINT HOLDERS OF SHARES

23. Where two or more persons are registered as the holders of any share, they shall be deemed to hold the same as joint tenants with benefit of survivorship subject to the following provisions:-
 - (a) The Company shall not be bound to register more than four (4) persons as the holders of any share, except in the case of executors or trustees of a deceased shareholder.
 - (b) The joint holders of a share shall be liable severally as well as jointly in respect of all calls and other payments which ought to be made in respect of such share.
 - (c) On the death of any one of such joint holders the survivor or survivors shall be the only person or persons recognised by the Company as having any title to such share but the Directors may require such evidence of death as they may deem fit.
 - (d) Any one of such joint holders may give effectual receipts for any dividend and payment on account of dividend, bonus, return of capital and other money payable in respect of such share.
 - (e) Only the person whose name stands first in the Register as one of the joint holders of any share shall be entitled to delivery of the certificate relating to such share or to receive notices from the Company and any notice given to such person shall be deemed notice to all the joint holders.

TRANSFER OF SHARES

24. Subject to the restrictions of these Articles, any Member may transfer all or any of his shares by instrument in writing in any usual or common form or in any other form which the Directors may approve. The instrument shall be executed by or on behalf of the transferor and the transferor shall remain the holder of the shares transferred until the transfer is registered and the name of the transferee is entered in the Register in respect thereof.
25. The Directors may decline to register the transfer of a share to a person of whom they shall not approve, and they may also decline to register the transfer of a share on which the Company has a lien or any transfer of shares, whether fully paid-up or not, made to a bankrupt, infant or person of unsound mind.
26. The Directors may also decline to register any instrument of transfer unless:-
 - (a) a sum as the Directors may from time to time require is paid to the Company in respect thereof plus the relevant amount of proper duty which each certificate to be issued in consequence of the registration of such transfer is chargeable under the law for the time being in force relating to stamps;
 - (b) the instrument of transfer is left for registration at the Office accompanied by the certificate of the shares to which it relates and such other evidence as the Directors may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer, and
 - (c) the instrument of transfer is in respect of only one class of share.
27. If the Directors decline to register any transfer, they shall within one month after the date on which the transfer was lodged with the Company send to the transferor and to the transferee notice of the refusal.
28. The registration of transfers may be suspended at such times and for such periods as the Directors may from time to time determine not exceeding in the whole thirty days in any year.
29. Subject to the provisions of these Articles, the Directors may recognise a renunciation of any share by the allottee thereof in favour of some other person.

TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

30. In the case of the death of a Member, the survivor or survivors where the deceased was a joint holder, and the legal personal representative of the deceased where he was a sole holder, shall be the only persons recognised by the Company as having any title to his interest in the shares; but nothing herein contained shall release the estate of a deceased joint holder from any liability in respect of any share which had been jointly held by him with other persons.
31. Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a Member, may, upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time properly be required by the Directors and subject as hereinafter provided, elect either to be registered himself as holder of the share or to have some person nominated by him registered as the transferee thereof, but the Directors shall, in either case, have the same right to decline or suspend registration as they would have had in the case of a transfer of the share by that Member before his death or bankruptcy.

32. If the person so becoming entitled elects to be registered himself, he shall deliver or send to the Company a notice in writing signed by him and stating that he so elects. If he elects to have another person registered, he shall testify his election by executing to that other person a transfer of the share. All the limitations, restrictions and provisions of these Articles relating to the right to transfer and the registration of transfers of shares shall be applicable to any such notice or transfer as aforesaid as if the death or bankruptcy of the Member had not occurred and the notice or transfer were a transfer signed by that Member.
33. Where a Member dies or becomes bankrupt, his personal representative or the assignee of his estate, as the case may be, shall upon the production of such evidence as may from time to time be properly required by the Directors in that behalf, be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages and to the same rights (whether in relation to meetings of the Company or to voting or otherwise) as the deceased Member would have been entitled to if he had not died or become bankrupt. Where two or more persons are jointly entitled to any share in consequence of the death of the Member they shall, for the purpose of these Articles be deemed to be joint holders of the share.

FORFEITURE OF SHARES

34. If a Member fails to pay any call or instalment of a call on the day appointed for the payment thereof the Directors may at any time thereafter, during such time as any part of the call or instalment remain unpaid, serve a notice on him requiring payment of so much of the call instalment as is unpaid, together with any interest which may have accrued.
35. The notice shall name a further day (not earlier than the expiration of fourteen days from the date of the notice) on or before which the payment required by the notice is to be made, and shall state that in the event of non-payment at or before the time appointed the shares in respect of which the call was made will be liable to be forfeited.
36. If the requirements of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any share in respect of which such notice has been given may at any time thereafter, before the payment required by the notice has been made be forfeited by a resolution of the Directors to that effect. Such forfeiture shall include all dividends declared in respect of the forfeited shares and not actually paid before the forfeiture.
37. A forfeited share may be sold or otherwise disposed of on such terms and in such manner as the Directors think fit, and at any time before a sale or disposition the forfeiture may be cancelled on such terms as the Directors think fit.
38. A person whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a Member in respect of the forfeited shares, but shall, notwithstanding, remain liable to pay the Company all money which, at the date of forfeiture, was payable by him to the Company in respect of the shares (together with interest at the rate of 10% per annum from the date of forfeiture on the money for the time being unpaid if the Directors think fit to enforce payment of such interest), but his liability shall cease if and when the Company receives payment in full of all such money in respect of the shares.

39. A statutory declaration in writing that the declarant is a Director or the Secretary and that a share in the Company has been duly forfeited on a date stated in the declaration, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share.
40. The Company may receive the consideration, if any, given for a forfeited share on any sale or disposition thereof and may authorise some person to execute a transfer of the share in favour of the person to whom the share is sold or disposed of and he shall thereupon be registered as the holder of the share, and he shall not be bound to see the application of the purchase money, if any, nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture, sale, or disposal of the share. Subject to any lien for sums not presently payable, if any, any residue of the proceeds of sale of shares which are forfeited and sold or disposed of, after the satisfaction of the unpaid calls or instalments payable at fixed times and accrued interest and expenses, shall be paid to the person entitled to the shares immediately before the forfeiture thereof or his executors, administrators, or assigns or as he directs.
41. The provisions of these Articles as to forfeiture shall apply in the case of non-payment of any sum which, by the terms of issue of a share, becomes payable at a fixed time, whether on account of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium as if the same had been payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

CONVERSION OF SHARES INTO STOCK

42. The Company may by ordinary resolution passed at a general meeting convert any paid up shares into stock and reconvert any stock into paid up shares of any denomination.
43. The holders of stock may transfer the same or any part thereof in the same manner, and subject to the same Articles as and subject to which the shares from which the stock arose might previously to conversion have been transferred or as near thereto as circumstances admit; but the Directors may from time to time fix the minimum amount of stock transferable and restrict or forbid the transfer of fractions of that minimum, but the minimum shall not exceed the nominal amount of the shares from which the stock arose.
44. The holders of stock shall, according to the amount of the stock held by them have the same rights, privileges, and advantages as regards dividends, voting at meetings of the Company, and other matters as if they held the shares, from which the stock arose, but no such right, privilege or advantage (except participation in the dividends and profits of the Company and in the assets on winding up) shall be conferred by any such aliquot part of stock which would not, if existing in shares, have conferred that right, privilege or advantage.
45. Such of the Articles of the Company as are applicable to paid up shares shall apply to stock, and the words "share" and "Member" therein shall include "stock" and "stockholder".

INCREASE OF CAPITAL

46. The Company may from time to time whether all the shares for the time being authorised shall have been issued or all the shares for the time being issued shall have been fully called up or not, by ordinary resolution increase its share capital by the creation and issue of new shares, such new capital to be of such amount and to be divided into shares of such respective amounts and to carry such rights or to be subject to such conditions or restrictions in regard to dividend, return of capital, or otherwise as the Company by the resolution authorising such increase directs.

47. Subject to any direction to the contrary that may be given by the Company in general meeting, any original shares for the time being unissued and not allotted and any new shares from time to time to be created shall before they are issued be offered to such Members as at the date of the offer are entitled to receive notices from the Company of general meetings in proportion, as nearly as the circumstances admit, to the amount of the existing shares to which they are entitled. The offer shall be made by notice specifying the number of shares offered and limiting a time within which the offer, if not accepted, will be deemed to be declined, and after the expiration of that time or on the receipt of an intimation from the Member to whom the offer is made that he declines to accept the shares offered, the Directors may dispose of those shares in such manner as they think most beneficial to the Company. The Directors may likewise so dispose of any new shares which (by reason of the ratio which the new shares bear to shares held by persons entitled to an offer of new shares) cannot, in the opinion of the Directors, be conveniently offered under this Article.
48. Article 47 shall not apply to issues of shares (other than bonus or rights issues) which do not in aggregate in any one financial year exceed 10% of the issued capital.
49. Except so far as otherwise provided by the conditions of issue, any capital raised by the creation of new shares shall be considered as part of the original share capital of the Company, and shall be subject to the same provisions with reference to the payment of calls, lien, transfer, transaction, forfeiture and otherwise as the original share capital.

ALTERATION OF CAPITAL

50. The Company may by ordinary resolution:-
 - (a) consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into shares of larger amounts than its existing shares;
 - (b) subdivide its shares or any of them into shares of smaller amount than is fixed by the Memorandum of Association of the Company, so however that in the subdivision the proportion between the amount paid and the amount (if any) unpaid on each reduced share shall be the same as it was in the case of the share from which the reduced share is derived;
 - (c) cancel shares which at the date of the passing of the resolution in that behalf have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person or which have been forfeited and diminish the amount of its share capital by the amount of the shares so cancelled.
51. The Company may by special resolution reduce its share capital, any capital redemption reserve fund or any share premium account in any manner and with, and subject to, any incident authorised and consent required by the Statutes.

GENERAL MEETINGS

52. An annual general meeting of the Company shall be held in accordance with the provisions of the Act. All general meetings other than the annual general meetings shall be called extraordinary general meetings. All general meetings shall be held at such time and place as the Directors shall determine. Every notice of an annual general meeting shall specify the meeting as such and every meeting convened for passing a special resolution shall state the intention to propose such resolution as a special resolution.

53. The Directors may whenever they so decide by resolution convene an extraordinary general meeting of the Company. In addition, an extraordinary general meeting shall be convened on such requisition as is referred to in Section 144 of the Act or, if the Company makes default in convening a meeting in compliance with a requisition received pursuant to Section 144, a meeting may be convened by the requisitionists themselves in the manner provided in Section 144 of the Act.
54. (a) Notice of every general meeting shall be given in any manner herein authorised to:-
 (i) every Member with a registered address in Malaysia or an address for service of notices in Malaysia; and
 (ii) the Auditor for the time being of the Company.
 (b) Subject to the provisions of the Act relating to special resolutions and agreements for shorter notice, fourteen days' notice at the least (exclusive of the day on which the notice is served or deemed to be served, but inclusive of the day for which notice is given) specifying the place, the day and the hour of meeting and in case of special business the general nature of that business shall be given to such Members as are entitled to receive such notices from the Company and shall be accompanied by a statement regarding the purpose of any proposed resolution in respect of such special business.
55. All business shall be deemed special that is transacted at an extraordinary general meeting and also all that is transacted at an annual general meeting, with the exception of declaring a dividend, the consideration of the accounts, balance sheets, and the reports of the Directors and Auditors, the fixing of the remuneration of Directors, the election of Directors in the place of those retiring, and the appointment of and the fixing of the remuneration of the Auditors.
56. In every notice calling a meeting of the Company there shall appear with reasonable prominence a statement that a Member entitled to attend and vote is entitled to appoint one or more proxies to attend and vote instead of him and that a proxy need not also be a Member.
57. The accidental omission to give notice of any meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive such notice shall not invalidate any resolution passed or the proceedings at any such meeting.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

58. No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum is present when the meeting proceeds to business. Where the Company only has one member, that member present in person or by proxy is a quorum for all purposes. However, where the Company has more than one member, two members present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote shall be a quorum for all purposes. A corporation being a member shall be deemed for the purposes of these Articles to be present in person if represented by proxy, representative or in accordance with the provisions of the Act. Amended and passed on 17 February 2016
59. DIVIDENDS AND RESERVES

133. Subject as hereinafter provided, and to any rights or privileges for the time being attached to any shares in the capital of the Company having preferential or special rights in regard to dividend, the profits or other moneys of the Company available for dividend, shall be applied in payment of dividends upon the shares of the Company in proportion to the amounts paid up or credited as paid up thereon, respectively otherwise than in advance of calls.
134. The Directors may, with the sanction of a general meeting, from time to time declared dividends, but no such dividend shall (except as by the Statutes expressly authorised) be payable otherwise than out of the profits of the Company and after all the provisions of the Financial Services Act 2013 or any modifications thereof for the time being in force have been duly complied with. The Directors may if they think fit, and if in their opinion the position of the Company justifies such payment, from time to time declare an interim dividend. Such payment of interim dividend may be satisfied wholly or partly by the distributions of specific assets in specie and where any difficulty arises in regard to such distribution the Directors may settle the same as they think expedient and fix the value for distribution of such specific assets or any part thereof and may determine that cash payments shall be made to any Members upon the footing of the value so fixed in order to adjust the rights of all parties and may vest any such specific assets in trustees as may seem expedient to the Directors. A declaration by the Directors as to the amount of the profits or other moneys at any time available for dividends shall be conclusive.
135. No dividend shall be paid otherwise than out of profits or shall bear interest against the Company.
136. (a) The Directors shall, before recommending the payment of any dividend, set aside out of the profit of the Company such sum or sums as may be prescribed, or such additional sums as they deem fit, to maintain a reserve fund in compliance with Financial Services Act 2013 or any modification thereof for the time being in force, and the Directors may set aside, any further sum or sums as they think proper as a separate reserve fund or as separate reserve funds.
- (b) Subject to any provisions to the contrary contained in the Statutes, any such reserve fund or part thereof shall be applicable for meeting contingencies, or for equalising, dividends, or for special dividends, or for repairing, improving, and maintaining any of the property of the Company, or for such other purposes as the Directors shall at their absolute discretion think conducive to the interests of the Company, and pending such application the Directors may invest the sums set aside for such reserve fund or funds upon such investment (other than shares of the Company) as they may think fit, and from time to time may deal with and vary such investments and dispose of all or any part thereof for the benefit of the Company, and may divide any reserve fund into such special funds as they think fit, and employ the reserve fund or funds or any part thereof in the business of the Company without being bound to keep the same separate from the other assets.

137. Subject to the rights of person, if any, entitled to shares with special rights as to dividend, all dividends shall be declared and paid according to the amounts paid or credited as paid on the shares in respect whereof the dividend is paid, but no amount paid or credited as paid on a share in advance of calls shall be treated for the purposes of this Article as paid on the share. All dividends shall be apportioned and paid proportionately to the amounts paid or credited as paid on the shares during any portion or portions of the period in respect of which the dividend is paid; but if any share is issued on terms providing that it shall rank for dividend as from a particular date that share shall rank for dividend accordingly.
138. The Directors may deduct from any dividend payable to any Member all sums of money, if any, presently payable by him to the Company on account of calls or otherwise in relation to the shares of the Company.
139. The Directors may, retain the dividends payable upon shares in respect of which any person is under the provisions as to the transmission of shares hereinbefore contained entitled to become a Member, or which any person is under those provisions entitled to a transfer thereof, until such person shall become a Member in respect of such shares or shall transfer the same.
140. All dividends unclaimed for one year after having been declared may be invested or otherwise made use of by the Directors for the benefit of the Company until claimed, subject to the provisions of the Unclaimed Monies Act, 1965.
141. Any general meeting declaring a dividend or bonus may direct payment of such dividend or bonus wholly or partly by the distribution of specific assets and in particular of paid-up shares, debentures or debenture stock of the Company or of any other company or in any one or more of such ways and the Directors shall give effect to such resolution, and where any difficulty arises in regard to such distribution, the Directors may settle the same as they think expedient, and fix the value for distribution of such specific assets or any part thereof and may determine that cash payments shall be made to any Members upon the footing of the value so fixed in order to adjust the rights of all parties, and may vest any such specific assets in trustees as may seem expedient to the Directors.
142. Any dividend, interest or other money payable in cash in respect of shares may be paid by cheque or warrant sent through the post directed to the registered address of the Member or, in the case of joint holders, to the registered address of that one of the joint holders who is first named on the Register or to such person and to such address as the holder or joint holders may in writing direct. Every such cheque or warrant shall be made payable to the order of the person to whom it is sent, and the payment of any such cheque or warrant shall operate as a good discharge to the Company in respect of the dividend represented thereby, notwithstanding that it may subsequently appear that the same has been stolen or that the endorsement thereon has been forged. Every such cheque or warrant shall be sent at the risk of the person entitled to the money thereby represented.

CAPITALIZATION OF PROFITS

143. The Company in general meeting may upon the recommendation of the Directors resolve that it is desirable to capitalize any part of the amount for the time being standing to the credit of any of the Company's reserve accounts, share premium account, capital redemption account or to the credit of the profit and loss account or otherwise available for distribution, and accordingly that such sum be set free for distribution amongst the Members who would have been entitled thereto if distributed by way of dividend and in the same proportions on condition that the same be not paid in cash but be applied either in or toward paying up any amounts for the time being unpaid on any shares held by such Members respectively or paying up in full unissued shares or debentures of the Company to be allotted and distributed credited as fully paid up to and amongst such Members in the proportion aforesaid, or partly in the one way and partly in the other, and the Directors shall give effect to such resolution. A share premium account and a capital redemption reserve may, for the purposes of this Article, be applied only in the paying up of unissued shares to be issued to Members of the Company as fully paid bonus shares.
144. The Directors may do all acts and things considered necessary or expedient to give effect to any capitalization with full power to the Directors to make such provisions as they think fit for any fractional entitlements which might arise (including provisions whereby fractional entitlements are disregarded or the benefit thereof accrues to the Company rather than to the Members concerned or to some Members other than others) and also to authorise any person to enter on behalf of all the Members entitled thereto into an agreement with the Company providing for the allotment to them respectively, credited as fully paid, of any further shares or debentures to which they may be entitled upon such capitalization, or (as the case may require) for the payment up by the Company on their behalf, by the application thereto of their respective proportions of the profits resolved to be capitalized on the amounts or any part of the amounts remaining unpaid on their existing shares, and any agreement made under such authority shall be effective and binding on all such Members.

LANGUAGE

145. Where any accounts, minute books or other records required to be kept by the Act are not kept in the English language, the Directors shall cause a true translation of such accounts, minute books and other records to be made time to time at intervals of not more than seven days and shall cause such translation to be kept with the original accounts, minute books and other records for so long as the original accounts, minute books and other records are required by the Act to be kept.

149. Every person who, by operation of law, transfer, transmission or other means whatsoever, shall become entitled to any share, shall be bound by every notice in respect of such share, which previously to his name and address being entered in the Register as the registered holder of such share shall have been duly given to the person from whom he derives the title to such share.

153. On the voluntary liquidation of the Company, no commission or fee shall be paid to a liquidator unless it shall have been ratified by the Members. The amount of such payment shall be notified to all Members at least seven days prior to the meeting at which it is to be considered.
